Number of backplates reported in the survey:								2249		Number of different bp# reported:				2076		% reported:		62.95%
Highest # of series a single backplate has been used:							3		Number of backplates at that maximum:				7
Plate numbers bold italics are or were either in my personal collection or reported to me by collectors.
Plate numbers underlined have been reported on star notes. Non-star notes are also found with these plate numbers.
Note that back plate 1905 (in 1974) was engraved as 905, which is an error.										Mismatched serial numbers reported.
One-digit 1977A bp# listed are mules from the restarted 1981 series printed at the same time and are excluded from the lowest bp#.
Color indicates bp# has been reported on Gilbert test paper (1963 & 1963A) or Natick test paper (1977A), bp#3-6 are mules w/'81 bps
Have a $1 note series 1957 through 1977A with a back plate not listed? Or Series 1981 $1 with a 4-digit back plate not listed?
If so, send an e-mail to: backplatesurvey@teamsaber.com with denomination, series, star (or not), and back plate information.
Full serial, front plate, and plate position would also be appreciated.
Special thanks to Chris Miller, who provided over 500 backplate numbers for normal and star runs.													Last Updated: 16-May-2023
